

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE BENEFITS

NOTICE TO WORKERS

If you lose your job or if you work less than full time and get less than your full-time wages, you may be entitled to receive Unemployment Insurance (UI) benefits. You can obtain a free copy of "Reemployment Assistance for the Unemployed – Informational Booklet for Workers Who are Unemployed" by visiting the Oklahoma Employment Security Commission's website at www.oklahoma.gov/oesc/individuals. This document explains your rights and how to file an Unemployment Insurance (UI) claim.

The unemployment claim filing process can all be done online at https://claimantportal.oesc.ok.gov. If you have questions or need assistance, you may contact the Oklahoma Employment Security Commission's Service Center at (405) 525-1500 or visit an Oklahoma Works office. To find your nearest office, go to https://oklahoma.gov/oesc/locations.html.

EMPLOYERS: It is required by Sec. 2-502 of the Oklahoma Employment Security Act that you shall post and maintain this notice in places readily accessible to individuals in your employ.
